Geevor Heritage Centre
Along the rugged and beautiful north coast is Geevor Heritage Centre. The museum tells the story of mining in Cornwall and the people who lived there. A combination bus travel and entrance ticket is available from your driver.

Sennen Cove
This beach is one of the most popular body-boarding beaches in Europe.

Land's End A dramatic cliff top setting for mainland Britain's most westerly point. Take in the enchanting scenery, or try some of the first class attractions.

Land's End A dramatic cliff top setting for mainland Britain's most westerly point. Take in the enchanting scenery, or try some of the first class attractions.

Porthcurno Telegraph Museum This fascinating museum tells the story of the 'Victorian Internet' - the forerunner to modern communication systems and has many hands on activities. The service stops just a short walk from the museum.

St Ives is idyllic, home to the famous Tate St Ives, a visit to this spectacular town with its sandy beaches and picturesque streets is a must.

Marazion/ St Michael's Mount A trip to Marazion to visit St Michael's Mount is essential. A famous 12th Century castle perched on an island, St Michael's Mount can be walked to across the sandy causeway when the tide is out.

Penzance Visit Penzance town centre for a spot of shopping or a walk along Cornwall's only seafront promenade.

Newlyn is an historic fishing port with some wonderful cafés and restaurants serving a selection of the locally caught seafood.
