

Smiles Better – Send us your favourite jokes

Terms and Conditions

- Jokes need to be no longer than 30 words in total and may not contain sexist, racist, discriminatory or offensive language.
- First reserves the right to disqualify any entries that may cause offence to other passengers.
- Competition is open to all UK residents except employees (and family members) of First and their agents
- The number of entries is not limited
- The entries will be judged by the Marketing Manager of First Bristol, Somerset and Avon. The winners shall be those entries that are considered to be the best. The judge's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- We can not accept jokes which are subject to copyright laws
- The competition closing date is 31 January 2009.
- The winning jokes will be printed onto advertising "cove" panels and displayed on buses running on services 231/2, 234, 358/9 and 4 in Taunton.
- Each winner will receive a free FirstMonth Avon Plus ticket. There is no cash alternative available.
- Participating in publicity is part of the terms and conditions of entry
- Winner's names may be obtained by writing to Marketing Department, Freepost 3782, Bristol, BS5 0ZX
- Proof of emailing or post will not be accepted as proof of delivery and no responsibility can be accepted for entries lost, delayed, mislaid or for any technical failure
- First reserves the right to alter stated prizes subject to receiving acceptable entries
- In the event of the same joke being received on more than one occasion, the winner shall be selected by drawing relevant entries from a hat randomly by an independent person
